

TRAFALGAR DAY FOR BENEFIT OF BRITISH RELIEF

Concert for Worthy Organization Will Be Held Saturday Night

One of the season's notable events will be the concert in aid of the British Red Cross Society which will be held next Saturday evening in the Mission Memorial Building, King street. It is "Trafalgar Day" and a program brimful of interest is being arranged for the joint benefit and celebration. The program is to be announced shortly.

The British Red Cross Society is the immediate successor and present representative of the first Red Cross society ever established in Great Britain. This was the British National Society for Aid to the Sick and Wounded in War, which was founded by the late Lord Wontage in 1870, and in 1905, at the instance of the late King Edward, amalgamated with other bodies under the title of the British Red Cross Society. The primary object of the society is to furnish aid to the sick and wounded in time of war.

In October, 1914, the British Red Cross Society and the Order of St. John decided to cooperate for the purposes of the war, and a joint war committee of the two societies was formed with this object.

The work is done with the full approval of the admiralty and the war office, and in cordial cooperation with the medical services. It is the pride of the Red Cross that in every crisis in the campaigns of Great Britain and her Allies it has been able to bring prompt and efficient aid to supplement the untiring work of the official services.

NEW OFFICER COMES TO JOIN ST. LOUIS

A new officer for the U. S. S. St. Louis, Lieut. J. L. Hall, arrived on the transport Thomas last week and will this week relieve Lieut. John C. Thom, temporary chief engineer of the cruiser. Lieut. Thom belongs to the Alert, as he is division radio officer, and on submarine duty with the third division. Lieut. Hall will be chief engineer of the St. Louis and Lieut. Thom will probably rejoin the Alert here in a few days. According to the navy directory of September 1, Lieut. Hall was on the U. S. S. Utah before he was ordered to the St. Louis.

NEARLY HALF OF CRIMES OF WEEK DUE TO LIQUOR

Out of 141 arrests made by the police during last week 53 were for drunkenness, six for selling liquor without a license and seven for disturbing the peace through over-indulgence in liquor. This makes a total of 66 arrests, nearly half of all, directly attributable to booze.

The work of the police was almost doubled because liquor flowed too freely. From the file of police reports, day by day, the following are selected:

Monday—Mary Sosnokoff fought with her husband when he went home from work to find her drunk and several neighbors with her.

Tuesday—Solomon Ulanahie was found lying on the ground, intoxicated.

Wednesday—Jim Kalehua was under the influence of liquor and could not walk.

Thursday—Joe Mallina was drunk and had to be arrested for safe keeping.

Friday—Pishiansky came out of a chop suey house, drinking a bottle of beer. Threw bottle in the street when finished.

Saturday—Pvt. Colvin's face badly battered in a fight with "dough" boys. Oscar would not leave a saloon when ordered to do so because he said it was a public place. Police took him out.

Saddest of the affairs of the week attributable to liquor was the death of a Fort Ruger soldier by drowning while drunk on Waikiki beach. The story goes that previously he and a number of comrades in arms engaged in a free-for-all fight in Kapiolani park during which the victim drew a knife. Some of the participants went to the hospital as a result of the drunken brawl and the knife-wielder later went to face his maker.

On Monday Mrs. Antonio Correa objected to her husband's ineptness and bonked a brick so hard upon his head that he went to the Emergency hospital for repairs. The following day a wife was the victim and came bleeding to the Emergency hospital with an ugly gash in her forehead. On Wednesday Sam Kapohu paid $20 for an assault which followed excessive drinking. Thursday a drunken soldier fell and injured his face, and so the sad tale goes on.

When Pat Brady came in from the country to spend a week-end in Honolulu he got a good start and then languished in a cell instead of being about the streets. In court next morning he candidly told Judge Monsarrat, when asked why he didn't stay with his work: "Jedge, ya can't drink and work at the same time."

"I should think it would be a pretty good business proposition under those circumstances," said the judge, "to cut out drinking."

COMMITTEE TO PROBE KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOLS HAS INITIAL MEETING

Meeting late last week for the first time, Attorney D. L. Withington, Mrs. Emma Nakulua and Attorney J. Lightfoot, members of a special committee appointed to investigate the Kamehameha Schools, outlined tentatively their plans for the investigation, although nothing definite has as yet been decided on. The committee is now awaiting a report on certain matters from the Kamehameha Alumni Association, and after the receipt of this report will begin active work, says one of the members. Chairman Withington probably will assign each member of the committee to certain phases of work in connection with the investigation.

SHARP ADVANCE MADE BY MINERAL PRODUCTS STOCK

Unlisted securities were today chief in interest in the local stock market and that interest centered mostly about Mineral Products which enjoyed another sharp advance and was much sought. From 127 1/2, for which 200 shares were sold, it rose to $1.40 and then eased off 2 cents to $1.38. At $1.36 5500 shares sold, 2800 at $1.35, 1125 at $1.27 1/2, 100 at $1.40, and 100 at $1.35.

Engels Copper recovered the 5 cents lost Saturday and 1000 shares sold at $2.50. Oil sold at $3 for 2765 shares. Sales of listed securities between boards of 20 shares and $1500 in Telephone 5 per cent bonds at $1.05. At the session there were 142 shares dealt in. Oiaa was 16 1/2, San Carlos 19 7/8, and Hawaii Railroad common at 8.

BROAD IN SCOPE IS 'MID-PACIFIC' FOR NOVEMBER

The November number of the Mid-Pacific Magazine is in every sense of the word, "Pan-Pacific." Practically every country of the great ocean is represented in crisp articles and life-like illustrations.

The art section is deserving of comment. With the assistance of Professor Eryan the magazine has collected a series of remarkable photographs, which have been arranged on 16 pages, telling the story of the ancient Hawaiians, their industries, their amusements, etc. The ideas set forth in this section will be worked out in floats for the Pan-Pacific pageant in the Carnival next February.

The next 16 pages form a section given over to the Pan-Pacific industrial and commercial museum, which is being organized in Honolulu by the Pan-Pacific Club. Then we learn what part the Trail & Mountain Club is taking in the Pan-Pacific movement, and how it is endeavoring to make Hawaii's beauty spots better known.

Mrs. Jack London continues her delightful "Crusade of the Shark," and this month she tells how the "Shark-ites" spent the glorious Fourth, 1908, among cannibals.

"From Yokohama to Tokio" is the title of a little account by Harvey L. Miller of a railway journey between these two cities. One good article is by a local boy: K. P. Emory tells of a trip in a sampan with Jack London along Windward Molokai.

Australian native life has an interest for most people, and there is an article on Australian Birds which gives a brief idea of what would be met with on a hike through the bush. There are many other articles of merit, well worth reading.

HILO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SAYS TREATED BADLY

by Norton after he had been shown the following special correspondence from Hilu:

"What can be well described as a strange state of affairs seems to exist in Honolulu where the representative of the Hawaii Publicity Commission is not allowed to board incoming steamers from different ports, and is thus deprived of the first and most important duty of any such employee of a 'boosting your own town' proposition. Lionel Webb de Vis-Norton, Hawaii's paid publicity agent, is not, according to Mr. George H. Vickers, chairman of the commission, allowed to board any steamer along with the newspapermen and the representatives of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, all of whom have passes, of course, as they have had for years past.

"Vickers brought the matter to the attention of the members of the board of trade when he had Secretary E. N. Deyo read a resolution to the effect that something should be done to place the Hawaii Publicity man on a basis where he would be granted the privileges that are accorded the newspapermen and the Promotion Committee representative, instead of being classed as a runner for some hotel, transportation company or boarding house."

TWO STABBING AFFAIRS ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Two stabbing cases among Japanese Sunday have been reported to the police and Ishihara and Nakashima have been arrested and are being held for investigation relative to affrays. Trouble in each case is said by Deputy Sheriff Julius W. Asch to be the result of too much sake.

Ishihara is thought to have assaulted Nishioka and Nakashima is thought to have cut Hama. Both affrays took place Sunday afternoon, the former in Lanakila Tract and the latter on Pauha street. Neither was serious, according to the police.

GERMAN OFFICIAL REPORT ASSERTS ALLIES CHECKED

Yesterday's Report
GERMAN HEADQUARTERS, Oct. 15.—On the western front, on Prince Rupprecht's front, there was strong artillery fighting on both sides of the Somme, extending beyond Ancre northward and increasing to greatest violence between Courcellette and Rancourt, as well as on the Barleux-Abtaincourt. English attacks north of Thiepval caused hand-to-hand fighting in our lines. In one place the enemy gained a footing, otherwise everywhere repulsed.

On the Les Boeufs sector the enemy was repulsed and when attacking between Abtaincourt and Barleux gained some footing in the village and sugar factory of Genemont, but was otherwise repulsed. The south part of Abtaincourt is in our hands.

On the Crown Prince's front the artillery fire increased. East of the Meuse it was stronger.

On the eastern front, in front of Luck and west of there, fighting continued. Strong fire preface Russian attacks which yesterday were limited to the wooded terrain south of Zatury, which were repulsed. There was also activity between railroad lines. In the Carpathians we have recaptured the summit of Smotrec, which was lost September 21. Near Kirlibaba the Austro-Hungarian troops obtained advantages by an attack, capturing 444 men. In Transylvania, on the eastern frontier, we had successful engagements against hostile rear-guards. In the passes there was no change. The enemy was again driven from a ridge occupied day before yesterday.

On the Balkan front, Mackensen's situation is unchanged. Strong hostile attacks on the Macedonian front and near Monastir-Florina line failed. Attempted attacks east of the railroad were swept down. No change in the situation on Czerna river bend but fighting there is almost ceaseless.

DUTIES OF FEDERAL JUDGES FOR PRESENT TERM ARE ASSIGNED

An order was issued in federal court today outlining the duties of Judges Horace W. Vaughan and Charles F. Clemons for the October, 1916, term. Judge Vaughan will have charge of all criminal cases, except those in which he is disqualified; the grand jury, naturalization, bankruptcy and all matters which he has under advisement. Judge Clemons will have charge of all other matters coming before the court.

POLICE OFFICER AND SOLDIER PUT OUT FIRE

A soldier and a policeman forgot for a moment Sunday morning their similar roles of fighter and keeper of the peace by fighting flames in the Sun Company store at the corner of King and Kekaulike streets. They were Motorcycle Policeman Sam Ferreira and J. C. Willard. A spark had started a blaze in some old bags and sticks in the attic and the officer and soldier were the first to notice the flames. They established a bucket brigade for two and poured so much water into the smoke in a few minutes that the fire was practically out before the fire department arrived.
